A TERRIBLE TRIP

Last summer I went to visit a friend in Debrecen, in Hungary. I set [1]_____ for the airport at 6 a.m. with plenty of time to catch my plane. I was already [2]_____ my way when I realised hadn't packed my [3]_____ bag, so I went back to get it. When I started again, the rush hour had started and there was a massive traffic [4]_____ on the way to the airport. I rushed through check-in and [5]_____ the plane as the last passenger.

In Debrecen my friend János was supposed to [6]_____ me at the airport, but he was not there and he didn't answer his phone. I decided to try and find his house by myself. I bought a city map, but I [7]_____ lost anyway. I also nearly got run over by a car on a zebra [8]_____, because I was looking at my map and not paying attention to the traffic.

When I finally arrived [9]_____ János's house, he was there, very worried, trying to get through to me on the phone. It turned out he'd thought I was coming [10]_____ train and had been waiting for me at the railway station. And I still don't know why we couldn't reach each other on the phone.
