Jason Lester is a world champion you've probably never heard of, but his story has inspired many disabled people.

At the age of 12, he was riding his bicycle when a car hit him, causing terrible injuries. As a result of <sup>1</sup>_____ accident, he could no longer use his right arm. Incredibly though, after nearly a year of treatment in hospital, Jason began to <sup>2</sup>_____ part in sports again, but with only one arm. In his darkest days, Jason couldn't have imagined that years later he would be <sup>3</sup>_____ in events around the world, but that's exactly what happened. His disability did not prevent him from enjoying life and, these days, he does athletics; he has even won an award for the best male athlete with a disability. But Jason isn't just <sup>4</sup>_____, he's also the author of a book which tells the incredible story of his road to success. His message of encouragement has given hope to many people with disabilities, and <sup>5</sup>_____ to help others in the future.
