To: Heatherjohnson
Subject: Family news
Dear Heather,
Thank you for your letter, and for enquiring about my family. Here's our latest news.
My sister Violet is <sup>1</sup> p_____.! The baby will be born in September. It's a girl, so I'm going to have a little <sup>2</sup> n_____.
My <sup>3</sup> c_____ Lily, my aunt Helen's daughter, has just become <sup>4</sup> e_____. She and her <sup>5</sup> f_____ are planning to get married next June. My uncle Frank, however, who was married when you met him, is now <sup>6</sup> d_____. Fortunately all his children are grown up!
How about your family? Have there been any major events recently?
All the best,
Bethan

JIM SNOWDON - A SAD STORY WITH A HAPPY ENDING
