Bought a pair of fake designer jeans – help!

A few weeks ago I saw a <sup>1</sup>b _____ advertising a new style of jeans from a well-known designer <sup>2</sup>l _____. I found them in an online store I hadn't used before; they were very cheap, so I ordered them. My mum didn't really want me to use her <sup>3</sup>c _____ card online, but in the end she let me do it. The parcel arrived after two weeks. The jeans are <sup>4</sup>f _____: both pockets are badly torn inside. They're also the wrong <sup>5</sup>s _____ (26 instead of 28). But that's not all – the quality is so poor I'm almost sure they're fake. I've made a <sup>6</sup>c _____ and asked for my money back, but the shop refuses to give me a <sup>7</sup>r _____. They've offered to <sup>8</sup>e _____ the jeans for another pair. I don't really want another pair! Can someone advise me what to do?
