To: Jenny
Subject: Hello!

Hi Jenny,
How are you? How was your holiday?
Paxos, ¹ _____ is a Greek island, is incredible. We are here with my grandparents, ² _____ have never been abroad before! The hotel is fantastic. I made friends with Alex, ³ _____ parents manage the hotel. Yesterday, he took us to a beautiful little beach ⁴ _____ very few people go. While we were swimming a family of goats stole our food! Can you believe it?! The only thing they didn't take was a bottle of lemonade. Apparently, summer is the season ⁵ _____ they are all over the island. When Alex's mum, ⁶ _____ is an amazing cook, found out what happened she made a delicious meal for us. What a day!

See you soon!
Amy

TRAFFIC JAM SURVIVAL GUIDE

PEOPLE LOVE THE EASE AND COMFORT OF DRIVING, but commuting every day can be very frustrating. Traffic jams, ¹ _____ long lines of vehicles never seem to move, have become a part of modern city living. For millions of people around the world, driving to and from work every day ² _____ serious stress because they are on the road for hours. Firstly, it's a complete waste of precious time and, secondly, it makes them anxious to think they might arrive ³ _____ work late. The frustration builds and builds because there is nothing they can do to make the traffic go faster.

So do drivers have another choice? Yes, they do; they can take public transport. It might not be as comfortable as a car, but it has many benefits. It's definitely cheaper and the environment will thank them for ⁴ _____ their cars at home. Now that we all have smartphones and tablets, the time on the train or bus can be spent pleasantly by listening to music, or more productively by dealing with emails and planning the work day. It's better than being ⁵ _____ in traffic, breathing in car exhaust fumes and getting angrier by the minute!
